Local Designer Recognized in Competition
Recognizes Excellence in Kitchen and Bath Design

Hackettstown, N.J. (Oct, 2009) – The National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA) is pleased to announce that Laurie Peirick, kitchen designer and owner of JP Kitchen Studio, in Oconomowoc has been recognized in the 2009 NKBA Design Competition.

Peirick was recognized in the kitchen over 250 square feet category for a project at Bob & Karen Lesch’s home in Nashotah. The kitchen was small and looked just like every one else’s in the neighborhood. Peirick’s award winning design doubled the square footage of the kitchen by opening the wall between the formal dining room and the kitchen. The new space includes cherry cabinetry and loads of beautiful Bordeau Sienna granite counters. The kitchen is now an inviting space that family and friends can all congregate and enjoy each other’s company.

JP Kitchen Studio specializes in the design, planning and installation of complete kitchens and bathrooms and maintains a showroom at 1288 Summit Ave, Oconomowoc and can be found online at www.jpkitchenstudio.com.

Now in its 37th year and open only to NKBA members, the NKBA Design Competition recognizes the talent of kitchen and bathroom designers to plan safe, functional and personalized spaces that incorporate imaginative design statements and aesthetically pleasing solutions. The entries were judged on visual appeal, creativity, elements and principles of design, presentation, and safety and ergonomics, using the NKBA Kitchen and Bath Planning Guidelines.

The National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA) is a non-profit trade association that has educated and led the kitchen and bath industry since 1963. With nearly 40,000 members and growing, NKBA owns the Kitchen/Bath Industry Show & Conference (K/BIS). The mission of NKBA is to enhance member success and excellence, promote professionalism and ethical business practices and provide leadership and direction for the kitchen and bath industry.
