

Photography by Doug Edmunds

Tieg Kitchen

Kitchen Designer: Laurie Peirick, JP Kitchen Design Studio, Oconomowoc

Photo Stylist: Kelly Hudson, iDesign4Interiors

In today's hustle and bustle lifestyle, the Tieg family required a multi-faceted kitchen for much more than traditional cooking. They wanted a beverage center for entertainment, breakfast seating for family bonding, workspace for paying the bills and multiple workstations for food prep. The Tieg's former kitchen had walls dividing family activities. This area was completely opened by moving the kitchen to one end and combining the sunroom and dining area into a large open space.